My profile

I am a 21 years old developer, currently living in Corrientes, Argentina. I have experience in Frontend and Backend creating web applications such as ecommerce, single page applications, landing page, etc.

I have been studying web development for the last year, and in my journey I discovered I enjoy working in teams. I'm always looking forward to learning new technologies and I consider myself a very responsible and hardworking individual.

Experiences

● Sporty project, August 2022 - Current

Sporty is an e-Commerce created from scratch, it aims at dynamic content and their easy manipulation using CMS in a Backoffice where only an User with the admin role can manage.

It uses AWS S3 for image management in the cloud, MongoDB Atlas for storage in collections such as users, products, categories, ecommerce-info.

Other features it has are:

- Validations on the client and server
- Password encryption
- Error handling.
- Authentication and authorization with JWT

● Alkemy project, June 2022 - Jul 2022 (cowork)

As a fullstack developer, some features I built were:

- Dynamic content for the homepage and staffpage.
- Responsive and dynamic header and navbar.
- Some forms with validations, backend connections.
- User login and register logic.
- CRUD endpoints for news, users, categories...
